From the Assistant Director, Central Survey Office, Madras, Rc.A.3. 948.48.1 dated/20.5.48..

Reference:

The Board solicits the attention of Government to its reference No.3313.38.2 dated/13.3.1940, requesting Government to ratify the practice of not allowing increments to men with-out substantive posts, holding purely officiating posts, other than those in the ministerial service, in the Central Survey Office, to direct the F.R.26 (a) will not be operative in their cases, and to their orders thereon read above.

The position explained in the above Board's reference no longer exists in the Central Survey Office. There are practically no temporary posts, as recruitment to the Temporary establishment has been stopped, and posts on their becoming vacant have lapsed. In the present altered circumstances there is no further need for note (5) to F.R. 35 to operate.

2. The Board thereon requests Government may be pleased to order the deletion of Note (5) to F.R. 35.
